The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts announces the postponement of

Renée Fleming VOICES: Leslie Odom Jr.

Performance originally set for Friday, March 11, 2017 will be rescheduled for a date in the 2017–2018 season

(WASHINGTON)—The Kennedy Center today announced the postponement of Leslie Odom Jr.'s concert as part of the Renée Fleming VOICES series, which was to be presented on Friday, March 11, 2017 in the Eisenhower Theater. Odom, a Tony Award[®] winner for Broadway's Hamilton, has postponed the performance due to filming commitments. The performance will be rescheduled for a new date during the 2017–2018 season. Details will be announced soon.

Refunds for the March 11 performance will be issued to the original method of payment. Additional questions about refunds may be directed to the Advance Sales Box Office at (202) 416-8540, Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., or patrons can send an email to boxoffice-advancesales@kennedy-center.org.
