(WASHINGTON)—The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts is honored to welcome music icon and prior Kennedy Center Honoree Brian Wilson on May 7, 2018 at 8 p.m. in the Kennedy Center Concert Hall. Named one of Rolling Stone’s Greatest Tours of 2017, Pet Sounds, the tour has traveled to more than 24 countries across 180 performances in total since its launch in 2016.

Wilson continues to deliver a live performance of Pet Sounds in its entirety, as well as top hits and fan favorites spanning his 54-year career with The Beach Boys and as a solo artist. Hailed as a writer of one of the greatest American songbooks, *Pet Sounds* has reigned atop countless critic and fan polls, and has maintained its timeless rank as one of popular music’s most-cited influences.

Original bandmate Al Jardine, guitarist Blondie Chaplin, and a 10-piece orchestra, accompany Wilson as he leads the concert with classics like “Don’t Worry Baby” and digs into lesser known compositions like “Feel Flow” and “Salt Lake City” plus other Beach Boys hits.
