All Performances To Continue at the Kennedy Center During Government Shutdown

Public Hours of Operation to Be Reduced

(WASHINGTON)—The Kennedy Center will continue all performances, rehearsals, events, and educational activities, including the Center’s daily free performance on the Millennium Stage, during the government shutdown. Tickets will remain available for purchase at the Kennedy Center Box Office, which can be accessed beginning at 10 a.m. Patrons may also purchase tickets by phone via InstantCharge at (202) 467-4600 or (800) 444-1324, and at kennedy-center.org.

The building’s hours of operation will be reduced depending on performance schedule: on days when there are only evening performances, the building will open to the public at 5 p.m. On days with daytime performances (including school performances), the building’s opening time will be determined by the performance schedule. Patrons are encouraged to check kennedy-center.org, Facebook, or Twitter for updates.
